Pinehurst Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Pinehurst, N. C., February 25.—Many affairs have contributed to a week long to be remembered, a week of perfect days spent in the open air, and evenings of pleasant diversion, interest centered in formal dinners at the Carolina, a Washington's Birthday archery party at the Holly Inn, and a card party at the Berkshire.

Among numerous spreads, a dinner tendered the younger set at the Carolina by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Metcalf, of Providence, was easily the most elaborate. Its unique feature, place-cards, caricatures of the guests by Prestley S. MacLaughlin, of New York, an electrically lighted basket of "Jack" roses, the central table design. In the group were T. C. Trask, Prestley S. MacLaughlin, Roy S. Dunsline, C. Edward Seydell, Miss Carolyn Fuller, Miss Lady Maud Fuller, Miss Jessamine Childs, Miss Claire Renwick, of New York; C. N. Phillips, Miss Louise Elkins, Miss Mary Fowles, of Pittsburgh; Duval Dunne, of Boston.

Leslie D. Pierce, of Rochester, Vt., entertained with a "Dutch supper" at the Holly Inn, his guests including Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Robeson, of Rochester, N. Y.; Mrs. C. S. Waterhouse; Mrs. P. P. Wright, and the Misses Ethel Check, Claire Renwick and Miss Edith Houseman, of New York; Hazel Shannon, of Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Brackett, of New York; and Miss Edith Whittemore, of Boston, are the guests of Mrs. C. A. Sinclair, of Boston, at her villa, the "Red Gables." Events of the week included a putting contest, arranged in their honor by Mrs. W. L. Hurd, of Pittsburgh, and at an afternoon tea given by Mrs. Sinclair; songs by Mrs. Brackett contributing greatly to the pleasure of the afternoon.

The coming week will be a gala one, including the annual bazaar of the Village Club booked for Thursday afternoon and evening. The week following comes the third of the season's cottillions at the Carolina.

Wytheville Social News [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Wytheville, Va., February 25.—On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Harry Roberts was the attractive hostess at cards Mrs. Charles Barnitz entertained the D. A. C. Club and a large number of invited guests Friday evening.

The Five Hundred Club held its last meeting before Lenten season Tuesday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. William S. Moore, on Main Street.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Mary Powell entertained at a shower party in honor of Miss Virginia Dew, whose engagement to Julien Gravelly has been announced. Miss Dew is one of the most popular young women in the State, and the wedding will be a brilliant event of the coming spring.

Mrs. James S. Ward returned Wednesday from a trip to Newfields, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Trinkle and children leave this week for a visit to friends in Chattanooga.

Mrs. Robert Pierce and children are visiting the former's parents in Galveston, Tex.

Misses Margaret and Mamie McGavock are the guests of Dr. and Mrs. V. C. Huff.

Mrs. James Sexton, after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. E. Lee Trinkle, left Monday for Houston, Tex. She was accompanied by Mrs. Trinkle and little son.

Mrs. Curren Sanders is visiting friends in Chattanooga.

Miss Virginia Kent and Miss Mary Preston Kent leave this week to visit friends in Staunton.

Miss Battle Houser is spending some time with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Irvine, in Wilmington, N. C.

Mrs. Williamson McGavock and Miss Julia Palmer, of Middlesex, recent guests of Edmund Pendleton, returned Monday to Graham's Forge.

position near Farmville, much to the regret of her friends in Barboursville.

Sam McElroy and family have taken possession of their new home at "Maple Spring." This was formerly a part of "Springfields," and is now one of the most attractive homes in the neighborhood.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Scott Cowherd, of Madison Run, gave a most enjoyable entertainment in honor of their sister, Miss Ada Eggleston, of Gordonsville, whose friends gathered to celebrate her birthday. Among the guests were Miss Mary Wamborsie and Ralph Ashton, of Orange; Mr. Crawford, R. G. and Herndon Cowherd, Miss Addie J. Cowherd, of "Monteth," and Miss Ella Eggleston, of Gordonsville.

Mrs. Raulet and her little daughter, Virginia, of Rochester, N. Y., spent a few days this week at "Happy Creek," the guests of Mrs. Allen Potts. Mrs. Thomas Ellis, of Barboursville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. G. Christian, in Gordonsville.

Donald Cameron, of Richmond, is spending a few days at "Cameron Lodge," Orange county.

Thomas J. Fereau, of New York, will spend some time with W. Wilbur Osborne at "Lower Springfields."

G. L. Cowherd was a guest of T. F. W. Rutlin on Wednesday.

Miss Gertrude Marshall, of Barboursville, is spending some time with her uncle, Edgar Marshall, at Ashland.

L. C. Gaines, who has been ill in Jacksonville, Fla., for the past two months, is improving. He hopes to be able to return to his home in a few weeks.

Marsh Walker, of Millington, visited the schools in the neighborhood last week.
